News from the Studio

What a year 2011 has turned out to be – our three gorgeous little girls arrived and settled straight in to the madness of our home. We said that we wouldn't be taking on as much work as we wanted to spend time with our girls – the net result of this was the phone and emails were red hot and we've had our busiest year ever so I know you'll understand that we won't be offering as many courses this Christmas as we want to have lots of family time – especially as we're hoping that our fourth little girl will be with us too in time for frolicking in the forecasted snow! I'm planning on baking gingerbread, making stockings and decking the halls until I have to be revived with home made sloe gin (which may, in reality, result in a frantic trip around Darts Farm to buy all the necessaries as I run out of time and energy from believing I'm superhuman and can work minor miracles on a daily basis. Just having clean knickers, matching socks, pe kits and something for 'show and tell' seems to be a herculean task some days), 'welcome to the world of parenthood' I hear you sigh.

We've just finished bottling 100 pints of beer and preparations are underway to hit our target of 1000 pints of cider. I'm experimenting with rosehip teas and starting to sow seeds in readiness for next year's cutting garden – it's a veritable hive of activity. Our chickens arrive shortly, the girls are just bursting with excitement (and worryingly the dogs are licking their chops!). During our morning walks the girls collect kindling for the fires and the dogs collect about half a ton of mud to splatter over the kitchen (not so helpful I'll grant you) – autumn mists hang over the fields, lovely hedgerow foliage and berries abound and the smell of wet dog dogs pervade – autumn is definitely here.

Have a peek at the new class list and let me know if there's anything you'd like to join in with. I look forward to catching up with you soon.

Best wishes to you and yours

DIRECTIONS TO MY HOME STUDIO

Coming on the Old A30 (not the new bypass) – go straight through clyst Honiton and at the beginning of the Rockbeare Straight you'll see a Murco fuel station on your right at the brow of the hill (Rockbear Motor Services) and on the left you'll see a thatched cottage with the high brick wall (Stoney Villa). Directly after the thatched cottage there's a small lane on the left with a red signpost marked "Town & Country Supplies" (which is the family business - if you miss this turn you'll reach the Jack In The Green Pub). Take this lane which will take you over a hump back bridge & then a level railway crossing. Keep going straight up the hill, along a flat bit and then back down the hill. At the bottom of the hill you'll go over a small humped back bridge by a farm (farm on left) and you want to turn right here signposted to Burrow and Broadclyst.

After a short distance you'll come to a four cross way, and you need to go straight across. Carry straight on this road passing Burrow Cottages on your left and going around the slight bend. As the road straightens out a bit you'll see my house on your right. It's a thatched cottage painted yellow with a beech hedge at the front. You'll probably see several Landrovers parked outside. If you go past my house you'll end up in Town Hill by Town End and need to come back a bit.

Or From Exeter to Broadclyst Village - Approaching Broadclyst Village from Exeter (via Whipton, the University side of Exeter or through Beacon Heath), you'll pass through Pinhoe and then over a speed restrictor before you get to the centre of the village. In the village centre you'll pass the Coachmans Rest Tea Room on your left, then you'll see the Church on your left and the Red Lion Pub. Almost directly opposite the pub (on your right) you'll pass a thatched bus shelter and you need the next right hand turn after this, called Town Hill (if you pass the primary school on your right then you've gone a bit too far and need to turn around). Drive down Town Hill and carry straight on that road – don't turn right to Town End. You will pass through a pair of national speed limit signs straight in front of you and it looks as though you're driving out into the countryside. My house is the first house that you'll come to on the left. It has beech hedge in front and it's a cream coloured thatched house called College (although there isn't a very large sign so you probably won't see the house name).
